Title IX Coordinator
Office of Institutional Diversity and Equity
Lincoln Park: 773-325-8128 | Loop: 312-362-8970
titleixcoordinator@depaul.edu

Title IX prohibits sex discrimination on the basis of sex in federally funded education programs and activities. Sex discrimination includes sexual harassment, and sexual and relationship violence. DePaul is committed to offering a secure and supportive environment for individuals who report incidents of sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual and relationship violence and to ensuring those individuals receive resources and consider all available options. DePaul's Title IX Coordinator is charged with promptly responding to all Title IX complaints in a prompt and equitable manner.

Information on DePaul’s Sexual and Relationship Violence Prevention and Response Policy and other resources can be found at https://publicsafety.depaul.edu/relationshipviolence/index.asp. Information on DePaul's Anti-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment Policy and Procedures can be found at: http://policies.depaul.edu/policy/policy.aspx?pid=299.

Dean of Students Office
deanofstudents@depaul.edu

The Dean of Students Office (DOS) advocates for and supports students in navigating the university processes, particularly during difficult situations, as in personal and/or family crises, medical and/or personal leaves of absence. DOS is responsible for managing the Student Conduct Process as outlined in the Code of Student Responsibility, which can be found at: http://www.depaul.edu/university-catalog/academic-handbooks/code-of-student-responsibility/general-information/Pages/default.aspx. The Student Conduct Process starts if there is a violation of the Code or other university policy by a student, and is in place with the goal of balancing students' rights and responsibilities with the safety, educational and development needs of the university community. For more information visit https://offices.depaul.edu/student-affairs/about/departments/Pages/dos.aspx.
